

Excuse me. We are with a student organization here on campus – would you help us by answering a few questions about current events and interests? (It only takes a few minutes) My name is ... and this is ...

- 1) What are three things that are important to you?

- 2) From your perspective, what is one of the greatest needs we face today?

- 3) With the news and talk about the Middle East, how familiar are you with prophecy from the Bible concerning conflict in the Middle East?
VERY SOMEWHAT BARELY NONE

- 4) Do you regularly attend a church in the area? Yes No

- 5) Why would you say some people do not attend church?

- 6) If you could ask God one question, what would you like to ask Him: (if you need to define God for them – an all knowing, all powerful being, who will judge right and wrong and is personally concerned about you and your future.)
___ What's my purpose in life?
___ What happens to me when I die?
___ Why do bad things happen?
___ Is there intelligent life elsewhere?
___ Can I start over?
___ Other _____

- 7) If you were to die today, by accident of course, how certain are you that you would spend eternity with a holy and loving God? (Give a percentage)

- 8) If you were to die today and God were to ask you, "Why should I let you into My heaven?", what would you say to Him?

- 9) Would you be interested in attending a Bible discussion addressing questions people would like to ask God? YES NO

Thanks for your time(*). Your answers are quite interesting. Would you say that you have an interest in spiritual things? One of the main reasons the Bible was written, was for us to know what God requires for us to get to heaven. Would you like to see what the Bible says about this and how you can be sure you are going to heaven?
